“Spiritual Life at McPherson College”

What are the questions college students are asking about faith and spirituality? How can a college like MC keep students engaged and interested in the life of faith? Asia Frye, new MC Coordinator of Spiritual Life, will give a brief overview of college aged spiritual formation. Asia will weave into that conversation ways that McPherson College actively engages students in their faith journey including programming, social media, and relationship building. She will also share plans that look toward the future to develop a robust spiritual life presence on campus and beyond.
